

All Saints Protective Services, LLC was founded in 2008, by its visionary, Mr. Vernon Holmes, Jr., with the goal to provide unsurpassed protective and investigative services for their customers properties and lives.

As the owner, we hold in highest regard the values on which our company is built. They are Integrity, Dedication to our customers, and Distinction with respect to our competitors in the performance of our duty to you.

Some of our clientele include the U.S. Department of Homeland Security, Drucker and Falk Realty and Waffle House, Inc., to name a few.

Our corporate headquarters is located in Newport News, VA with extension offices throughout the Commonwealth, Maryland, Washington, D.C. and Delaware. We service businesses, legislative entities, and individuals as well.

What Makes Us Superior?

Integrity Doing what is morally and ethically sound regardless of who's watching.

Dedication Going the extra mile everyday, to enforce the interest of our two most valued commodities, our clientele and our employees.

Distinction We take pride in what we do. As a professional, our decisions are based on how well we represent your values with respect to the entire security profession.

Professional Security Services

Security Guard and Protective Services

Highly trained, armed and unarmed security officers for all your private security needs.

Our training program for all staff members here at All Saints Protective Services focus on delivering the customer quality services with two goals in mind: To first, deter incidents before they happen and secondly, when necessary, have an expeditious response, using lethal methods of deterrence as a last resort. We are one of the only agencies who provide electronic, up-to-the minute reporting. As a business owner, manager, or stakeholder, you are certainly aware of the financial impact and damages that can be incurred as a result of asset loss. As a home owner, if you do or do not have children, the safety of your loved ones and possessions are of the utmost importance.

Whether considering additional security for your business, your home or your community, trained professional security officers from ASPS will provide the safety and security you need. Our officers are experienced, well trained and professional in contrast to the competition. Our officers also are able to exercise full arrest authority and in most cases are appointed Special Police in many jurisdictions.

Who we serve:

- Colleges / Universities
- Residential communities
- Construction sites
- Commercial buildings
- Financial institutions
- Retail stores
- Hotel / motel security
- Shopping centers

All Saints also provides specially trained, Executive Protection Specialists for armed, non-uniformed, secured VIP escorts as well.

Private Investigative Services

We understand that it may be already difficult to cope with having to hire a personal investigator. Allow ALL SAINTS PROTECTIVE SERVICES' talented investigations team to give you peace of mind through this process by using our Confidential, Discreet and Professional services.

Our investigators are highly trained. They strive to maintain the most innovative techniques as well as implementing acquired knowledge through our continuous education and training programs. These ensure that you receive the best service possible.

Our investigative services:

- Personal protection
- Employment matters
- Insurance fraud
- Embezzlement
- Vehicular surveillance
- Infidelity
- Photographic evidence
- Skip tracing and locate service
- Professional fact finders
- Sexual harassment claims

Security Training and Driver Safety

ASPS also offers a host of training courses. In most cases these courses are required by various regulatory agencies to obtain certifications, licensure or to comply with state laws.

Our training programs / courses are:

- Armed / unarmed security officer certification
- Defensive Driving Course (to satisfy DMV / Court driving compliance issues)
*Courses are offered 24 hours a day
- Beginner's pistol course (required to obtain concealed weapons permit)

Client Satisfaction Guaranteed

In being your premier security provider, All Saints Protective Services is confident that you will be 100% satisfied with our services. We are fully licensed, bonded and insured. We also maintain compliance with the regulations set forth by the Virginia Department of Criminal Justice Services, Maryland State Police and the Washington D.C. Security Officer Management Branch in terms of a company as well as our officers.

We operate on the premise; performance speaks for itself. Hence our confidence in assuring you that if you are unhappy with our services you are under no obligation to continue with us.

We also are confident that ASPS will provide you with an unsurpassed level of service at the most reasonable price. Feel free to contact us about our special, Competitor Price Matching Program.
